

Darren Woodiwiss

Front-end Developer & Design Thinker @ IBM Studios Austin, TX

I'm a front-end developer looking to join a passionate and talented team who take pride in their work, while delivering impactful outcomes.

Experience

>_ Front-end Developer & Design Thinker at IBM | June 2014 - Present

○ Having started my journey at IBM Studios Hursley, I now reside at IBM's center of design - IBM Studios Austin. This position has provided a breadth of opportunities, from practicing UX design on complex enterprise products, to producing coded prototypes that showcase the design teams vision.

>_ Associate Lecturer at the University of Winchester | September 2012 - January 2015

○ Upon graduating I was invited to lecture at UoW where I attained the position of primary technology lecturer. I helped support 90+ students (undergrad to masters) with various assignments. I also taught the development modules for multiple technologies including; front-end, game development, AR, VR, Unity3D & more.
